Collect for Third of Easter

Risen Christ, you filled your disciples with boldness and fresh hope: strengthen us to proclaim your risen life and fill us with your peace, to the glory of God the Father.

Acts 9.1-6

Meanwhile Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest 2and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. 3Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. 4He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, 'Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?' 5He asked, 'Who are you, Lord?' The reply came, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. 6But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do.

John 21.1-19

After these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. 2Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. 3Simon Peter said to them, 'I am going fishing.' They said to him, 'We will go with you.' They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

4 Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. 5Jesus said to them, 'Children, you have no fish, have you?' They answered him, 'No.' 6He said to them, 'Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some.' So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. 7That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, 'It is the Lord!' When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the lake. 8But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off.

9 When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. 10Jesus said to them, 'Bring some of the fish that you have just caught.' 11So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. 12Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast.' Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, 'Who are you?' because they knew it was the Lord. 13Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. 14This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

15 When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my lamb.' 16A second time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Tend my sheep.' 17He said to him the third time, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, 'Do you love me?' And he said to him, 'Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep. 18Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go.' 19(He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, 'Follow me.'

Post-Communion Prayer for Third of Easter

Living God, your Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: open the eyes of our faith, that we may see him in all his redeeming work; who is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

Drayton Film Club: This Tuesday at Resurrection, starts at 2 pm. Everyone welcome, no admission charge, usual interval refreshments. John and Linda

PCC News: The draft minutes of the April PCC meeting are now in the folder at the back of each church for you to read. John

Books! Summer is coming: The sun is shining. Is there a better way to relax and enjoy the summer than reading a good book while drinking a glass of Pimm's (other drinks are available)? On the other hand, it's raining, and you need a good book to read until the sun comes out. Sorry we can't provide the drinks but do check out the bookstalls at each church. All donations to the parish defibrillator fund. Linda

Eco-church: The PCC sub-committee looking at the impact we have on the environment, would like to hear from any member of our congregations involved with environmental work locally. This could be a local conservation group, litter picking, beach cleaning, Portsdown Hill or Farlington Marshes. If you are involved with anything of this kind, please speak to me, Linda., Miriam, Sheena, or Anthony Purser. We will not be asking you to do anything more, we just need to know if there is anyone with that level of involvement already. John Hassocks/ kneelers at Church of the Resurrection: Those who made and donated kneelers for use in the Church of the Resurrection have been given first option to take one or more away. We still have plenty left which have not been claimed, so if others would now like to choose one or more of those remaining for home use, please have a look at the kneelers and choose which you would like to take away. Please let me know so that I can keep the lists up to date. Should you wish to make a donation (not essential), you can use one of the collection envelopes, which will provide for you to Gift Aid the donation should it be appropriate. Any donations will be put towards the defibrillator fund. This offer will come to an end on 31 May. John
