Collect for 4th before Lent

Lord of the hosts of heaven, our salvation and our strength, without you we are lost: guard us from all that harms or hurts and raise us when we fall; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Reading: Isaiah 6.1-8

.In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. ²Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. ³And one called to another and said:

'Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory.'

4The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. 5And I said: 'Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts!'

6 Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. 7The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: 'Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out.' 8Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?' And I said, 'Here am I; send me!'

Gospel: Luke 5.1-11

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, 2he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. 3He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. 4When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, 'Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.' 5Simon answered, 'Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.' 6When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. 7So they signalled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. 8But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, 'Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!' 9For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; 10and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, 'Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.' 11When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

Post-communion prayer for 4th before Lent

Go before us, Lord, in all we do with your most gracious favour, and guide us with your continual help, that in all our works begun, continued and ended in you, we may glorify your holy name, and finally by your mercy receive everlasting life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

We do not take a collection during the service. Instead we ask our regular worshippers to place their offering in the plate at the back of church as they arrive. Visitors are welcome to make a contribution if they wish.

PCC News: The Fabric Committee is meeting on Wednesday evening this week. Please pray for the members of this committee and for their deliberations that evening. John Upton

Knitting: We are keen to trial having wool, patterns and needles available for the congregation to use during family services to make simple garments for charitable purposes.. If anyone would be interested in setting up this initiative please could you contact either myself or Philippa. Anne Hooper

Christian Aid. With Lent approaching, it's time to turn our thoughts to soup lunches! Churches together in Cosham run soup lunches at the Drayton

United Church hall on Fridays from 11:45 to 13:30. Start date Friday 8 March with the final lunch on Good Friday at St. Colman's Church hall. In our Parish we do soup lunches on each Saturday of Lent starting on Saturday 9 March. These lunches are hosted in parishioners' homes. I am looking for volunteers to help with the Friday lunches....nothing too onerous, just serving soup. Please talk to me if you are interested in helping ... any help you could give would be appreciated. I'm also looking for volunteers to host the Saturday lunches (I have covered 3 out of the 6 weeks so far).. if you don't want to host, but are prepared to make soup, that's absolutely fine! Thank you ... Di Allen 07710 214528
