

16 January 2022
2nd of Epiphany

Welcome to our worship, especially if you are here for the first time.

Responsible for one another ...

If you have COVID symptoms please come again when you have recovered.

Groups of seats and individual seats are arranged where possible. If not, ask for a card requesting the seat next to you to be left free.

There is now a legal requirement to wear a face covering in places of Worship (unless you are exempt).

We will continue to share the peace by turning and/or waving to our neighbours.

Today we welcome The Revd Jackie Twine who will preach and preside at St Andrew's at 8am. Some may not be aware that Jackie was, prior to ordination, a member of our congregations at Farlington. Paul

Collect for 2nd of Epiphany

Eternal Lord, our beginning and our end: bring us with the whole creation to your glory, hidden through past ages and made known in Jesus Christ our Lord.

1 Corinthians 12.1-11

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed. 2You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak. 3Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says "Let Jesus be cursed!" and no one can say "Jesus is Lord" except by the Holy Spirit. 4Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; 5and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; 6and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. 7To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. 8To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, 9to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, 10to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. 11All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

John 2.1-11

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. 2Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. 3When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." 4And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come." 5His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." 6Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. 7Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. 8He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward." So they took it. 9When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom 10and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now." 11Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

Post-Communion Prayer for 2nd of Epiphany

God of glory, you nourish us with your Word who is the bread of life: fill us with your Holy Spirit that through us the light of your glory may shine in all the world. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

NEXT SUNDAY 23 January: A hot winter meal will be served in St Andrew's Hall from 1230 to 1430 on 23 January after the 11:15 service. Sign up sheets are at the back of both churches so we can estimate how much food to have available. The Friends of St Andrew's 100 Club. The winners in the January 100 Club draw were John Burwood, Rebecca Emerton and Michelle Voysey. Chris and Geoff.

Messy Church & Toilet Twinning: In the time before Lockdown No.1 the Messy Church congregation began to collect small change to twin our toilet. We managed to collect £74.50. Now our church toilet is twinned with a latrine in the Democratic Republic of Congo. There is a framed picture and the exact details plus location, which I hope will be fixed soon, so others can see the results of our efforts. Elaine Beeby

Christmas card scheme: A great big £215 has been raised for Southern Domestic Abuse from our Christmas card scheme this year. So thank you to all those who took part from both churches. I will be sending off a cheque towards the end of January so there is still time to donate if you would like to do so. Many thanks. Sheena Day

100 Years of Bible Reading Fellowship.

2022 is the centenary year of BRF. You may like to join in daily Bible reading with their notes. A variety of notes is available from New Daylight, the most popular to The Upper Room with international contributions. Also, Day by Day with God written by women and Bible Reflections for Older People. There are three copies per year at £14.25 or £15.75 for Bible Reflections.

The notes are arranged with a short Bible passage followed by a reflection and a prayer. Please contact me if you have any questions or would like to join in. Sample copies are on the library table at The Resurrection. Elaine Beeby

School in a Bag: Below is part of a letter that I received from Luke Simon, Founder and CEO of School in a bag.

Face Masks

We have now run out and need more for our 3,000 Afghan Refugee SchoolBags and other consignments. I think the best way to do it would be to ask people to make masks up until Easter - if we don't have enough by then we could extend it.

I have the pattern and would be pleased to email it to you or give you a paper copy. There will be copies at the back of the church. Thank you so much if you are able to make them. Maretta

Living in Love and Faith

Along with the rest of the Church of England, our Diocese is currently holding conversations relating to gender, marriage, sexuality, and relationships, under the heading 'Living in Love and Faith'. The aim of these conversations is to create brave, safe, supportive spaces in which we can explore together the theology and ethics involved. The conversations for our Deanery are being run at the Cathedral (we hope, in person) at 7 pm on Thursdays, starting on 20 January and running for five sessions with a break on 17 February.

For more information, please see our diocesan LLF page <https://www.portsmouth.anglican.org/LLF/> and the national LLF page, which contains links to a vast array of resources through the LLF Learning Hub, which is free to join and open to everyone:

<https://www.churchofengland.org/resources/living-love-and-faith/living-love-and-faith-learning-hub>

If you would like to attend this series of conversations then please let Maggie Moles know officeassistant@portseaparish.co.uk so she can book you a space.

Next Sunday 23 January 3rd of Epiphany

8am Said Eucharist at St Andrew's: Canon Paul Gully
9.30am Family Eucharist at Resurrection: Canon Paul Gully, Reader: Izzy Cordery, Intercessor: Neil Clark
11.15am Family Eucharist at St Andrew's: Canon Paul Gully, Reader: Lynne Runham Intercessor Amanda Wells
After Service—hot meal at St Andrew's Hall, please sign up

The readings for 23 January are: 1 Corinthians 12.12-31a and Luke 4.14-21. I really encourage you to read these before you come to worship. Paul
