Collect for Trinity 2

Faithful Creator, whose mercy never fails: deepen our faithfulness to you and to your living Word, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Galatians 5.1,13-25

For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery.

13 For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters; only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become slaves to one another. 14For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself.' 15If, however, you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another.

16 Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh. 17For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit, and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you want. 18But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law. 19Now the works of the flesh are obvious: fornication, impurity, licentiousness, 20idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions, 21envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, as I warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, 23gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things. 24And those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. 25If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit.

Luke 9.51-62

51 When the days drew near for him to be taken up, he set his face to go to Jerusalem. 52And he sent messengers ahead of him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for him; 53but they did not receive him, because his face was set towards Jerusalem. 54When his disciples James and John saw it, they said, 'Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?' 55But he turned and rebuked them. 56Then they went on to another village.

57 As they were going along the road, someone said to him, 'I will follow you wherever you go.' 58And Jesus said to him, 'Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.' 59To another he said, 'Follow me.' But he said, 'Lord, first let me go and bury my father.' 60But Jesus said to him, 'Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God.' 61Another said, 'I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home.' 62Jesus said to him, 'No one who puts a hand to the plough and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.'

At the COP26 climate talks in Glasgow last November many countries made ambitious promises to take action to limit climate change. However now that governments across the world are grappling with wars abroad and inflation at home these promises are in danger of being forgotten. The UK still holds the presidency of COP till the next conference in Egypt later this year, so it's timely to call on our government to deliver on its promises and support other countries to do the same.

On the Eco Church table at the back of the Church of the Resurrection you will find cards produced by Tearfund headed "Time to Deliver". These set out the effects of the climate crisis on poorer communities around the world, with a detachable postcard to send to the Prime Minister calling for urgent action. Please take one, add your name and contact details to the card and put it in the envelope pinned to the board so that I can send them all off together. And please continue to pray for all who are suffering from the results of climate change and those working to ameliorate it.

Also displayed on the board is a letter from Penny Mordaunt detailing the action she has taken in response to the "green hearts" that we send to her earlier in the year. Yes, it is worth writing to our politicians! Miriam Sampson
