Collect for Fourth of Epiphany

God of heaven, you send the gospel to the ends of the earth and your messengers to every nation: send your Holy Spirit to transform us by the good news of everlasting life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Reading Nehemiah 8.1-3,5-6,8-10

¹All the people gathered together into the square before the Water Gate. They told the scribe Ezra to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had given to Israel. ²Accordingly, the priest Ezra brought the law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could hear with understanding. This was on the first day of the seventh month.³He read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law. ⁵And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was standing above all the people; and when he opened it, all the people stood up. ⁶Then Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God, and all the people answered, 'Amen, Amen', lifting up their hands. Then they bowed their heads and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground. ⁸So they read from the book, from the law of God, with interpretation. They gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading.

⁹ And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, 'This day is holy to the LORD your God; do not mourn or weep.' For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law. ¹⁰Then he said to them, 'Go your way, eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions of them to those for whom nothing is prepared, for this day is holy to our LORD; and do not be grieved, for the joy of the LORD is your strength.'

Gospel Luke 4.14-21

Then Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. ¹⁵He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone. ¹⁶ When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, ¹⁷and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written:

¹⁸ 'The Spirit of the Lord is upon me,
because he has anointed me
to bring good news to the poor.

He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives
and recovery of sight to the blind,
to let the oppressed go free,

¹⁹ to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour.'

²⁰And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. ²¹Then he began to say to them, 'Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.'

Post-communion prayer for Fourth of Epiphany

Generous Lord, in word and eucharist we have proclaimed the mystery of your love: help us so to live out our days that we may be signs of your wonders in the world; through Jesus Christ our Saviour.

We do not take a collection during the service. Instead we ask our regular worshippers to place their offering in the plate at the back of church as they arrive. Visitors are welcome to make a contribution if they wish.

PCC News: The PCC will meet on Wednesday evening this week. Please pray for the members of the PCC and for their deliberations that evening.

Thank You from Friends Without Borders:

Thank you all so much: £1076 is a wonderful donation.

(This was made up of £750 which is the annual amount pledged from the Parish for 2019 and £326.25 which is the total amount collected at our Christmas services - Paul). We last week hired a mobile home to give a little shelter in the cold months to three of our homeless clients. They are people who have been caught by the Windrush Right to Rent legislation even though they're trying to start fresh claims. The generosity of people like you has made that rental possible - and your donation will mean that we can keep it open a few more weeks. Thank you all. Very best wishes,
Michael Woolley, Chairman Friends Without Borders

Knitting: We are keen to trial having wool, patterns and needles available for the congregation to use during family services to make simple garments for charitable purposes.. If anyone would be interested in setting up this initiative please could you contact either myself or Philippa. Anne Hooper

Churchwarden required from April 2019 I have enjoyed my time as churchwarden and am very grateful for all the help and support given to me. Having this support has meant the job has remained manageable and I would like to encourage anyone thinking of taking on the role to remember this and get in contact and discuss what it actually entails. Thanks Chris Batstone - Churchwarden Resurrection

Farlington Parish Treasurer After 10 years as the Parish Treasurer I will be standing down with effect from the APCM on 28 April 2019. I am very happy to talk to anybody who is interested, without any commitment on their part, about the role and, if they wish to undertake the role, work through a handover with them. There is an excellent team of people who work with the Treasurer to carry out many of the tasks and help make it far less onerous. The main tasks of the Treasurer are: running the accounting software, preparing the annual accounts, preparing the draft annual budget and running the payroll. However, some of these could be outsourced if required to reduce the role. Please feel free to approach me in church or contact me
